COMMUNICATION:

AUDIENCE PARTICIPATION:

Sue Helke stated she went to the library and asked for the City's Master Plan and the library did not have a copy.

City Planner John Jackson said he will bring her a copy of the Master Plan a week from Wednesday at his office hours when he meets with her.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS: None

NEW BUSINESS:

ADMINISTRATIVE REPORT:

1. Code Enforcement Report October

DISCUSSION:

Commissioner Palmer said the Tree Lighting is December 7th. He said there will be a reindeer there.

Commissioner Wolfson asked what is going on Maple Road passed M-5.

Chairman Malone said it is Zerbo's an organic grocery store.

COMMISSIONERS COMMENTS:

Commissioner Wolfson asked if anyone knew how the fire started at Pepino's.

Commissioner Robertson said they think it may have started in the kitchen but they do not know. Pepino's had four feet of water in the basement. The City had to turn off the water that was running because the curb stop was broken during the fire.

Chairman Malone said he hopes the business owners plan on rebuilding the restaurant.

Commissioner Robertson said two of the family members ran the restaurant and two other family members ran the building.

Commissioner Palmer asked what is going on with the rails to trails.

Commissioner Robertson said the rails to trails board asked for an extension until January. He stated he does not know what the holdup is. He said last meeting the board was discussing building a bridge over M-5. He said the basic sale has to happen first.
